

UK/China Business Exchange

Tuesday 10th May 2011, Heritage Motor Centre Motor Museum in Gaydon, near Warwick

“Your chance to meet senior Chinese business representatives who want to partner with UK aerospace and automotive companies”

A major Chinese aerospace and automotive delegation is visiting the UK from 9-13 May 2011 to take part in UK/China Government to Government and Business to Business meetings.

UK Trade & Investment is holding this major business networking event to enable UK companies to meet key business and technical contacts in major Chinese aerospace and automotive companies and organisations.

Likely Chinese attendees from the aerospace sector will include COMAC and major AVIC companies and from automotive, vehicle manufacturers such as the Chinese Association of Automotive Manufacturers (CAAM), Changan, DongFeng, First Automotive Works (FAW), SAIC, BYD and Guangzhou Automotive.

By attending the event you will be able to:

1. Participate in workshops and learn about the latest business opportunities in the Chinese market directly from senior Chinese Government and aerospace and automotive business representatives
2. Engage in face to face partnering opportunities with Chinese businesses
3. Build lasting relationships that can lead to future long-term business collaboration and partnerships

Thanks to significant support from UKTI the cost to attend the event is just £95+VAT per delegate.
